OUR MISSION

“To create great wines, produced in an individual and sustained method, in harmony with nature.”

Jorge Rosas
CEO at Ramos Pinto, 5th Generation of the Ramos Pinto Family

OUR INSPIRATION

“A wine of extraordinary depth which surprises with its multiple layers and dimensions of aromas, freshness and weight.”

Ana Rosas
Porto Wine Master Blender

THE HISTORY

VINCES forms part of the motto of the House of Ramos Pinto, it means “you will win”.

Right at the start, founder Adriano Ramos Pinto chose the Latin phrase IN HOC SIGNO VINCES - with this symbol, you will win - as a vision for prosperity. Since 1880, through successive generations, this vision has been the guiding philosophy of Ramos Pinto. Today, Jorge Rosas, great-nephew of the founder, looks to the future of Ramos Pinto with that same innovative and pioneering spirit. The launch of VINCES carries the legacy of its ancestors, yet speaks of contemporary elegance. This very old Tawny Porto, with an average age of 100 years, comes from the family reserves. Aged in wooden casks, VINCES was perfected by Ana Rosas, great-niece of the founder and Master Blender at Ramos Pinto.

TASTING NOTES

VINCES has an amber colour with slight accents of olive green, surrounded by a deep mahogany-coloured core.

On the nose, this wine embarks on an intoxicating succession of opulent and seductive aromas of dark molasses, fig and clove. Notes of tobacco and cedar, combined with delicate nuances of vanilla and mocha, give rise to the ageing aromas of marzipan, iodine and hazelnut. This is followed by notes of dried fig and Damascus apricot, combined with balsamic hints of varnish and spices. Soft and silky on the palate, VINCES is an expression of perfect harmony. A wine of extraordinary depth which surprises with its multiple layers and dimensions of aromas, freshness and weight.

PRESS RELEASE

VINCES - Very Old Tawny Porto

Since the 19th century Ramos Pinto chose the Latin saying in hoc signo vinces - “with this symbol you will win”, as a vision for prosperity. The launch of VINCES recovers the forebears’ legacy in a contemporary version. Aged in oak casks, VINCES was perfected by Ana Rosas, great-niece of the founder and Master Blender at Casa Ramos Pinto.

VINCES is a blend of Ramos Pinto reserves, a special tawny blend with an average age of 100 years. The round-bottomed decanter was meticulously created by Portuguese master glass blowers, using the ancient tradition of the blowpipe. The decanter was then embellished with silver, a noble metal, to immortalise its image. Artisans from the north of Portugal designed a wooden travel case in which to store the wine in an elegant setting.

VINCES is synonymous with singularity and excellence.
